

About Us

DEMIR PACKING with its international brandname D-PACK is the leading manufacturer company for automatic and semi automatic filling , weighting (scaling) and packing systems for agricultural, industrial and food sectors since 1980 . With the power of our expert engineers, technicians , professional staff, sales team and after sales service; we are at the top of list with our quality and working principles. Demir Packing manufactures together with internationally valid registered TSE, CE, OIML, ISO certified materials and quality controls.

Our local references at any point of Turkey together with international references around the World reflect our real power, product quality and optimum function of products which make us powerfull than the others who are trying to imitating and following us...